

Early Rocketry Development Quiz

1. Where do the first records of rockets come from?
  - a. India
  - b. Europe
  - c. China
  - d. America
2. The earliest records of rockets date back to the 8th century.
True or False
3. Solid rockets use a mixture of which substances as fuel?
  - a. Charcoal, saltpeter, and sulphur
  - b. Hydrogen and Oxygen
  - c. Oil and Alcohol
  - d. Wood, paper, and bamboo
4. Which group of people improved the rocket by making the fuel containers out of metal?
  - a. British
  - b. Indians
  - c. Chinese
  - d. Germans
5. How did William Congreve improve rockets?
6. Who was the first to consider interplanetary travel?
  - a. Konstantin Tsiolkovsky
  - b. William Congreve
  - c. Robert Goddard
  - d. Hermann Oberth
7. How many rocketry patents did Robert Goddard have?
  - a. 153
  - b. 214
  - c. 560
  - d. 97
8. Who led the technical development of the V-2 during World War II?
  - a. Hermann Oberth
  - b. Wernher von Braun
  - c. Charles Lindbergh
  - d. Robert Goddard

9. What is the title of Robert Goddard's Smithsonian publication?

- a. A Method of Reaching Extreme Altitudes
- b. The Rocket into Interplanetary Space
- c. Woman in the Moon
- d. Around the World in Eighty Days

10. Who is this?

- a. Hermann Oberth
- b. Robert Goddard
- c. Konstantin Tsiolkovsky
- d. Wernher von Braun